

RS Antiques

Pair Hunting Engravings

This is an attractive pair of early coloured engravings of hunting scenes after H Alken in ebonised frames. Published by S.B Fuller Gallery of Fine Arts, 61 Pall Mall, LONDON.

Inscription on the engravings read:

'ONE OF THE RIGHT SORT'

Who hunts because he likes it.
"Confound this snow I shall never get a light; but the worst of it is it will put a stop to hunting for a few days at least".

'ONE OF THE WRONG SORT'

who goes out with hunters because it is the fashion.
"Confound the snow is not hunting bad enough without this; but there's one comfort we shall not be able to go out again for some time".

Circa Date: 1820

Stock Number: 772P

Height: 16.5" (frame) 10.5" (engr)

Width: 17.5" (frame) 11.5" (engr)

Price: £ 375.00

www.rsantiques.com

0845 838 2693 or 07881 813896